VERNON, Connecticut – The Vernon Public Schools will host a job fair on Thursday, September 22nd, 2022 from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Rockville High School library/media center, 70 Loveland Hill Road, Vernon.

There are multiple positions open, including special education teacher, Spanish teacher, paraeducators, speech and language pathologist, transportation and logistics coordinator, director of adult education, and school bus drivers. The Vernon Public Schools offer competitive pay and top-notch benefits, including health insurance and retirement.

Vernon Public Schools leaders will be on hand to answer questions, discuss career paths in education and conduct immediate on-site interviews with people who attend.

“If you want to work in a great community, with dedicated staff, and learn and grow as a professional, Vernon is the place for you,” Assistant Superintendent of Schools and Human Resources Director Robert Testa said.

While teachers are primarily responsible for educating students, all Vernon Public Schools employees play a role in educating Vernon’s children, Superintendent of Schools Dr. Joseph P. Macary said.

“Every member of our team contributes to student success,” Dr. Macary said. “Teachers, paras, school bus drivers, custodians and cafeteria workers help make our award winning schools safe, welcoming and dynamic places where students can do their best. The Vernon Public Schools are a great place to work because we are building the future.”
