

Rockville High School Door Decorating Contest Rules

Theme: "What Are You Thankful For?"

General Information

- All Advisories. Open to all students, teachers, and staff at Rockville High School. Offices or spaces without Advisories are also encouraged to participate.
 - Doors must be completed by December 11th.
 - Judging Date: Doors will be judged on December 12th and 13th. Winner announced on December 16th.
-

Rules and Guidelines

1. Theme Compliance:
 - All decorations must clearly align with the theme "What Are You Thankful For?" and showcase creativity and originality.
 2. Safety First:
 - Decorations must not obstruct the door's ability to open and close fully.
 - No decorations should extend beyond 6 inches from the door or block hallways.
 3. Appropriate Content:
 - All designs must adhere to Rockville High School's code of conduct.
 - No offensive, inappropriate, or controversial imagery, text, or symbols.
 4. Materials:
 - You may use paper, fabric, lights (battery-operated only), or other craft supplies.
 - Adhesive materials (tape, glue) must not damage the door or surrounding surfaces.
 5. Teamwork Encouraged:
 - Each should work together to design and decorate their assigned door.
 - Collaborate and divide tasks to make it a fun and inclusive activity!
 6. Judging Criteria:
 - Creativity: Original and innovative ideas.
 - Theme Representation: How well the decorations reflect "What Are You Thankful For?"
 - Craftsmanship: Neatness, effort, and attention to detail.
 - Visual Impact: Overall presentation and appeal.
 7. No Late Submissions:
 - Doors must be fully decorated by the specified deadline. Late entries will not be judged.
-

Awards & Prizes

- Categories:
 - Best Overall Door
 - Most Creative
 - Best Theme Representation
 - Prizes: Winners will receive a certificate of recognition and donuts during Advisory on 1/8/25
-

Additional Notes

- Be respectful of others' decorations and school property.
- Cleanup is the responsibility of each group (after advisory and after the contest ends.)

Let's celebrate gratitude and creativity together! Good luck, and may the best door win! 🐔 ✨